Forest Fire Under Control

BALTIMORE, MD., November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Fire, which broke out about midnight in the woods near Towson, Baltimore county, was still burning this morning, but it was believed by the fire-fighters that danger to property had passed. The flames which were running through the woods bordering the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad, had burned back between two and three miles from the tracks, and for a time endangered big wooden trusses of the road and a large number of cottages.

Former Athens, Ohio, Minister Dies

WEST MINSTER, MD.—Rev. James M. Nourse, 82, retired Presbyterian minister, who formerly held a charge at Athens, Ohio, died of paralysis.

(Copyright 1922 By United Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.—The American government regards with distinct disfavor views being expressed here concerning foreign policies of United States by Georges Clemenceau, former war premier of France.

This was the answer given the United Press by a highly authoritative source in response to inquiry as to whether those in direct charge of American foreign relations agreed in main with the sharp attack by Senators Borah and Hitchcock on statements of the noted French statesman. It is the view of this country that the French policy which Clemenceau defends is largely responsible for the present economic and political plight of Europe. While France continues to maintain an attitude of unbending repression against Germany, it is felt in Washington, that the German reparations question is the root of trouble in Europe and that France holds the key to this problem.

Attack Volstead Restrictions

ST. LOUIS, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—The Volstead act was attacked as "provocative of disrepute for law," as an "obnoxious invasion of the prerogative of the physician," and as indirectly detrimental to the health of users of alcohol by causing the consumption of "deteriorating concoctions and beverages" in a resolution adopted by the St. Louis Medical Society of Reformation in session here.

"Be it resolved," the resolution added, "that as fellows of this society we will use our utmost efforts to legally modify the eighteenth amendment if it cannot be legally eradicated from our constitution in its entirety."

Government Wins First Fight In The House Of Commons

LONDON, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—The first division in the new house of commons which occurred this afternoon was carried by the government by a majority of 103 against the Laborites opposition.

When Prime Minister Bonar Law moved that the government be empowered to take all the time of the house for government business during this session, the Laborites opposed it. The prime minister's motion, however, was carried by a vote of 235 to 135.

The authorities here admit they have run up against a blank wall. In an effort to find a criminal motive, they said neighbors declared no one had been seen prowling around the Henderson home, nor was any evidence of a plot to "get" the railroad shop worker, unearthed.

All indications, they assert, point to poison, if such was the manner of death, having been administered in the food. They declared evidence seems to point to Mrs. Henderson as the perpetrator of the deaths, who is believed to have become mentally unbalanced, brooding over illness.

Mrs. Henderson is said to have been ill for some time. She is reported as having visited physicians in Columbus, Nelsonville, Logan and elsewhere. In the home a variety of patent medicines were found and there were many pamphlets and circulars of advice on illness.

Lancaster officials asserted that they can do nothing until state officials advise them of the result of the chemical tests.

They said they are not putting a great deal of credence in the theories that the deaths were caused by outsiders or a plot of "enemies" of the family. They point to the fact that food for the Tuesday night meal was purchased by Henderson on his way home from work and if any poison was placed in it, it would have had to have been done while it

DEATHS PUZZLE POLICE

By NEA Service

Poison sent by an enemy or possibly administered by a despondent wife or fumes from a leaking gas valve. These are the two theories on which police of Lancaster, O., are working to clear the mysterious deaths of Irvine E. Henderson and his entire family. A neighbor found Henderson and his wife, Florence, in a sitting position, while the children, Eli, 7; Helen, 6; Maine, a boy, 4, and Christians, 18 months old, were in their beds. Henderson had previously expressed his suspicions of poisoning by a man whose name he gave his family physician. But Prof. E. R. Hayhurst, of Ohio State University, who is consulted to the state health department, says the circumstances of death resemble those in a case of monoxide gas poisoning. Above are shown Henderson, his wife, and the three-room cottage in which the family lived.

DESPONDENT WOMAN APPEARS TO HAVE CAUSED TRAGEDY

LANCASTER, O., November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Lancaster people today were looking to Columbus for the next scene in the death tragedy of the Henderson family. Whether Irvine Henderson, his wife and their four children died of poisoning, or were asphyxiated, will depend upon the results of a series of investigations to get under way in Columbus today.

Likewise, any attempt to start criminal action by police and county officials here, will be contingent upon what state chemists will find in an examination of the organs of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, an analysis of the food on the Henderson table for the fatal Tuesday evening meal, and an investigation under all lighting conditions of a stove in the Henderson living room.

Authorities here are marking time, pending the results of these investigations and they may not be announced before tomorrow or the first of the week. It will take some time, Lancaster officials were told, to perform the research.

The authorities here admit they have run up against a blank wall. In an effort to find a criminal motive, they said neighbors declared no one had been seen prowling around the Henderson home, nor was any evidence of a plot to "get" the railroad shop worker, unearthed.

CHILDERS, DE VALERA'S CHIEF AID, IS EXECUTED

DUBLIN, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Erskine Childers, chief lieutenant of Eamon DeValera, was executed here today.

He was executed at 7 o'clock this morning for having had an automatic pistol in his possession. It is an announced in an official bulletin given out by the National Army.

The brief army report states that Childers was tried by a military court at Portobello barracks, Dublin, November 17, charged with being in possession without proper authority of an automatic pistol when apprehended by National forces, Nov. 10, at Antrimore House, County Wicklow. The accused, the report adds, was found guilty and sentenced to death and the finding and sentence was duly confirmed the execution was carried out this morning.

Erskine Childers, lieutenant commander in the Irish Republican army and one of the right hand men of Eamon DeValera, was placed on trial before a military tribunal in Dublin, on November 17, on the charge that he had a pistol in his possession when arrested at Wicklow by Free State forces on November 10. The trial lasted two days. Childers, who was 42 years old, appealed through counsel for a writ of habeas corpus, which was denied yesterday. He then appealed to the court of appeals for Southern Ireland.

Childers was an ardent proponent of an Irish republic and strongly opposed ratification of the treaty setting up the Irish Free State on the ground that it meant "absorption of Ireland in the British empire."

He was defeated last June in the elections for the Southern Irish parliament, receiving fewer votes than any other candidate in the whole election.

Early in the next month he was reported to be organizing a band of insurgents in the Dublin Hills, and later in the summer commanded the band of irregulars who cut the cable in Valentia Harbor.

A British officer was injured in the attack. No German soldiers were concerned in it.

IRISH BILLS INTRODUCED

Five Million Loss At Camp Sherman, Charged

WASHINGTON, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Legal action to recover more than $20,000,000 alleged to have been obtained fraudulently from the government in the construction of four army camps during the war, was instituted today by Attorney General Daugherty as the first formal step in a far-reaching prosecution of those who held contracts for the building of war camps.

The four suits begun today were filed simultaneously in United States district courts in four states, and involve charges of fraud in connection with the construction of Camp Upton, New York; Camp Jackson, South Carolina; Camp Sherman, Ohio, and Camp Funston, Kansas.

Other civil actions and possibly criminal prosecutions, are to follow. It was said, at the department of justice, involving a total of more than $75,000,000 and reaching into virtually every part of the country.

In each of the four cases, the suit was filed against the "prime contractor" responsible for construction of the camp. The four defendants concern and the amount the government seeks to recover from each are: The Thompson Starrett Company, builders of Camp Upton, $20,000,000.

The Hardaway Contracting Company, builders of Camp Jackson, $6,500,000. A. Bentley and Sons, builders of Camp Sherman, $5,000,000. The George A. Fuller Company, builders of Camp Funston, $4,000,000.

The Camp Upton suit was filed at the attorney general's direction at Brooklyn, N. Y., the Camp Jackson suit at Columbus, S. C., the Camp Sherman suit at Columbus, Ohio, and the Camp Funston suit at Topeka, Kansas.

It was indicated that similar actions would be brought at these places later against minor contractors who helped in the construction of the four camps, and that should any criminal action be sought the evidence would be placed before the special war fraud grand jury now in session in the District of Columbia.

The bills of complaint, drawn up at the department of justice as a result of more than a year of investigation, are virtually identical in the four suits filed today and allege that the defendant contractors and their agents were guilty of fraud, gross neglect, inefficiency and waste in their relations with the government at a time when government officials were unable because of the stress of war, to fully inspect the work of construction.

Childers was an ardent proponent of an Irish republic and strongly opposed ratification of the treaty setting up the Irish Free State on the ground that it meant "absorption of Ireland in the British empire."

He was defeated last June in the elections for the Southern Irish parliament, receiving fewer votes than any other candidate in the whole election.

At such a time the complaints declare, the defendants betrayed the trust placed by the government in their patriotism and committed to render a minimum of return for the money they received. The result, it is charged, was not only a loss of a large percentage of the funds invested by the government during the war, but also embarrassment and delay in the nation's plans for prosecuting the war.

In the case of Camp Jackson the sum fixed by the government investigators as recoverable and named in the suit against the Hardaway Company is more than half the total cost of the camp, while in the other three cases, the amounts asked for are close to forty per cent of the whole construction outlay.

It is charged further, that the government eventually was compelled to employ another concern to complete the work of construction so that the Beatty Company "not only caused great damage and loss

YOUR BACKACHE?

After Grip, "flu" or colds, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys.

This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further threads of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Amuric (anti-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those pains, such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

Send Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package of Amuric, or ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Amuric (kidney and backache remedy).

Cost of Tuberculosis

Tuberculosis is still costing the American public annually no less than $5 per capita, notwithstanding the fact that the death rate has been reduced nearly 50 per cent during the past 18 years. Think of what 10 or even 5 cents per capita in a given community, would mean in the way of a program of community work to reduce tuberculosis mortality and sickness! Nurses, clinics, children's prevention, open air classes, nutrition classes—whatever the needs may be—they can be provided if everyone in the community is given the opportunity to buy as many seals as he or she can use on letters or packages that are sent by mail from now until Christmas.

Accused Of Violating Food Laws

Local butchers, George E. Frederick, G. D. Hunt, Dr. Schlesier and John Mueller were summoned to municipal court Thursday to answer to complaints made by L. M. Stewart, state inspector, charging them with violations of the state pure food laws.

Mueller was charged with selling pork sausage containing added cereal and water without having a sign in his shop advertising this fact. Mr. Mueller explained that it was necessary to use a little potato flour and moisture in baking large quantities of sausage so that the proper amount of seasoning may be worked into the product. He also explained that he had for a number of years displayed a sign in his shop advertising customers of the use of cereal in his sausage but that the notice was lost in moving his place of business a short while ago. The court passed his case and indicated that the complainant would be dismissed.

Jacobs and Hunt were charged with adding sulphites to hamburger and adding cereal to pork sausage while Frederick and Schlesier were charged with but one offense that of adding sulphites to meat. The defendants explained that they had used nothing in their products except a preparation called "Seasonine" claimed to be a pure food product and their cases were continued for two weeks, in order to give the state department an opportunity to get an analysis of the "Seasonine" product with a view

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run-down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well

Richmond, Ind. — "I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Corn Courtney, of 705 North Seventeenth street this city.

"I was all run down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did, and I will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping.

"I have five children, four in school, and my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us, and find time to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs."

"I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—tired all the time."

"It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman."

If you are in a run down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you.

Cardui is a purely vegetable, tonic medicine for women's ailments, found valuable in thousands of such cases as described above.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—What do you think of a couple who make a practice of "dropping in" as they call it about meal time. They pretend to be your friends but they lose no time in finding out when you dine and they are always on the job of "dropping in" at meal time. The woman brags about how saving she is, and that she never lays in anything for Sunday like most people. So far so good, but you will always find her parked at some one's table every Sunday, and several times through the week. Now Dolly, it is not that we don't like these people but we hate their nerve. I never could respect people who take advantage of their friends. Never once have the people they impose on been invited to their home for a meal or anything else. How can we cure them of this wretched habit without actually insulting them? Or must our friendship cease?

YOURS IN DOUBT

You might develop a sudden attack of the "dropsy" and drop in on them at meal time for a while. That is about the quickest way to cure them. Another way is not to go to the door if the bell rings about meal time.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Miss Margaret Schrank, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids, is getting along nicely. The operation was performed at Mercy Hospital.

Dear Dolly—I have been reading your good advice for some time and am not going to keep still any longer. Dolly, read a letter in this column a short time ago where a young girl said all the men were so foolish and she would be happy if she could just meet a sensible one she could love. If she will not let age interfere, I'm the man she is looking for, and she can just quit looking and take me.

LOVELY WIDOWER.
It's so much more romantic to find your ideal than to have him presented to you like a Christmas gift of birthday present. However, if you do make a match, here's hoping it is one of the safety kind.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please give me a little information concerning my ideal revenue officers, as there is a place in Kentucky that must be re-borted. Thanking you in advance.

KENTUCKY WIFE.
You can locate a revenue officer at Cynthiaburg, Ky. If you will tell me in what city or county you live I may be able to locate one nearer your home.

Dear Dolly—Can you get married to another, to take his place. Sometimes I get the blues, so badly that I wish I were dead or up in dear old Ironton. Dolly, would you advise me to go back to dear old Ironton—the city that has a heart, or stay here and get turned down, every time I look at a girl?

BLUE JAMES.

I think if you will stick around long enough you will get some girl to notice you. If not, you might traction up to that dear old burg every week-end and give the girls up there.

SOCIETY

Miss Ruth Sprague, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Clare will be a charming social event of the new year, was complimented with a pretty handkerchief shower last evening, when Miss Doris Dupuy entertained in her honor at the Dupuy home, 1531 Third street. The many dainty white and colored linen handkerchiefs were presented to the bride-elect in a large cut glass basket, cleverly arranged in the form of roses.

The remainder of the evening was spent informally, a program of enjoyable social diversions, which included dancing, music and games being arranged by the hostess for the pleasure of her guests. At a late hour a delicious refreshment course was served by Miss Dupuy, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Dupuy, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Paul Dupuy.

The guest list included the Misses Ruth Sprague, Minnie and Martha Clare, Elizabeth Duduit, Marlie Schlichter, Edith Cummins, Mrs. Anslem Skelton, Mrs. Paul Dupuy and Mrs. T. J. Dupuy.

A congenial group of young girls met at the home of Miss Ruth Millard on Seventh street last evening and formed a sewing club, which is yet unnamed. The evening hours were pleasantly occupied in sewing and social chat, with a tempting lunch at an afternoons.

The members of the club are the Misses Dorothy Goetz, Page Geer, Mary Pfleider, Jane Bothwell, Kathryn Elliott, Bernice Dell and Ruth Millard.

The next meeting will be with Miss Kathryn Elliott on Robinson avenue.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Jewish Temple will give a card party in the Social Center Monday night.

Miss Catherine McCaffry of 820 Waller street went to Columbus this morning to spend the week-end with relatives.

Mrs. A. E. Singleton entertained with the third and last of a series of charming parties, given for the Helene Krohn of Cleveland and Miss Helene Krohn of Cleveland and Miss Mae Patterson of Peketon this afternoon at her home, 514 Waller street.

Fall flowers made an attractive setting for the handsomely gowned ladies, and tables were arranged for the diversion, which formed the diversion until five o'clock, when a tempting refreshment course was served at the small tables.

Those enjoying the hospitality so graciously extended by Mrs. Singleton were Mrs. Robert S. Kyle, Mrs. Joseph S. Rardin, Mrs. Cecil S. Miller, Mrs. William S. Sellards, Mrs. Harry C. Bush, Mrs. E. E. Seig, Mrs. Ormsby Kresling, Mrs. John F. Dudley, Mrs. Campbell Taylor, Mrs. Earl Cookes, Mrs. H. B. Murray, Mrs. George Webb, Mrs. H. M. Keil, Mrs. D. E. Gardner, Jr., Mrs. Howard Keyser, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. O. J. Deitzler, Mrs. Heron N. Johnson, Miss Edna Streicher, Miss Helen Rardin and the two hour guests, Miss Helene Krohn and Miss Mae Patterson.

Miss Essie Fitch has returned to her home in Ashland, Ky., after a short visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. James W. Fitch of Ninth street.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

It was a short job to hitch the sea-horses to Jack's raft. Everything was set for the little adventurer's trip back home, so Jack bid the ruler of Pearl Island farewell. Off the sea-horses went! Water splashed and Flip barked. In almost no time Jack was out of sight of land.

TWO separate patterns 10c FOR EACH pattern.

Miss Gertrude Morgan, of Jackson, was recently chosen one of the new officers of the School Music Club at Ohio University. Miss Morgan is one of the advancing students in this department where teachers of public school music are trained.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Purrung of Fifth street, have as a guest their son, Dr. M. C. Purrung of Cincinnati.

The Misses Ida and Clara Herms returned home last night from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Clarence Schultz left November fifteenth, for Steubenville, where he has a position with the LaBelle Iron Works.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Revere of 1025 Fifth street, are expected to arrive home in a few days from Philadelphia, Pa., where Mrs. Revere underwent a successful operation for appendicitis recently. Her friends here will be pleased to learn of her convalescence.

The Social Aid of All Saints' church will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. L. Williams, 1215 Fourth street. A good attendance is urged.

Miss Margaret Firstone was hostess to the members of the Women's Auxiliary of All Saints' church at her home, 716 Fourth street, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Oldfield, the president of the society, had charge of the meeting. During the business session plans were made to send a box of clothing to a mission school at Glen Dale, N. C.

The scripture passage was read by Mrs. Henry Bannon. One of the main features of the afternoon was the original paper written by Miss Anna Ross, on "Summer Conferences," which was interesting and instructive.

The latter part of the afternoon was spent with music and pleasant conversation, with dainty refreshments as an after-math.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. S. L. Gilbert of Sixth street, the last week in December.

At this meeting the penny-a-day for the City Newman flower fund will be collected.

The Ketchum Auxiliary of the Second Presbyterian Church held an all-day mission study class at the church yesterday. This is a semi-annual affair and was largely attended.

The president, Mrs. William Selards, presided at the meeting. The studies were taken from the Home Book, "Trend of the Races," which dealt with the Negro problem.

A most unusual feature of the day, and which proved a rare treat, was presented by a chorus of twenty-four colored children, pupils of Mrs. Penrie Anderson Turner, and her assistant, Miss Grant, both teachers at the Eleventh street school, which sang several selections.

At one o'clock a delectable luncheon was served to about thirty members. The committee in charge of the luncheon consisted of Mrs. Mary Sutton, Mrs. Habath Edington, Mrs. Fannie May, Mrs. Sadie Weeks and Mrs. Bertha Moore.

The business meeting was postponed on account of the dance, which was voted a big success. Next week several candidates will be given a degree, work.

From every point of the compass, from the Scioto bridge to the Terminus, from the Ohio river to the extreme boundaries of the city on the north, the members of the Loyol Daughters' Bible Class of First Christian, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Haight, 1148 Fourth street, last evening for their regular monthly business and social session.

They kept on coming until they numbered more than forty strong, just women. It took all the pent up politeness, all the southern gallantry, and then some of the man of the house, to withstand such an onslaught all by himself. He lived through it all.

After a business session of the day, the next all day meeting of this kind will be held sometime in February, while the next regular meeting of the Ketchum Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh J. Evans, of Waller street, on Monday, December fourth.

A large attendance is being looked forward to at the Vesper Concert which will be given next Sunday afternoon, from three o'clock until four, at the United Brethren church, on Serpent and Gay streets.

The closing hour was made a more enjoyable with delicious brick cream in generous portions and home-made cake.

The next meeting of the class will be in the form of a passing party and will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rheinfrank, Sixth street.

The concert is being given under the auspices of the Ruth sisters' Sunday school class of the United Brethren church. The general public is invited.

Nine members of Division B, of the First Baptist Ladies' Aid Society and two visitors met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Bole, on Ninth street, yesterday afternoon.

Waging Campaign For Better Cattle

YANCEBURY, Ky., Nov. 24.—J. W. Whitehouse, of Lexington, Ky., State Agricultural Agent, was here yesterday checking up on the work of E. O. Bate, our county agent.

With the help of Dr. T. E. Volk, State Veterinarian, Bate has been putting on an anti-tuberculosis campaign, which reached every part of the county. They have been showing the farmers, by means of moving pictures and lectures, the dangers of the breeding and using infected cattle. Positive proof being given that their flesh and milk were unfit for food. Farmers to the number of 327 have signed up to have 1618 cattle tested by the tuberculin test. The testing will begin December 4th and will be done by a Federal Veterinarian.

Tiger Lashes

To Senator Borah's recent assertion that Clemenceau was primarily responsible for conditions in Europe because of his great influence in the drafting of the Versailles treaty, the aged statesman declared his situation was "particularly distressing" since in France he had been most bitterly criticized "for having asked from the Germans less than I ought to."

When he was told that some of the senators at Washington had said they were not able to understand clearly from his speeches just what he wanted of America, the Tiger said with a gleam in his eyes, that he thought they would know after his address this afternoon in Tremont Temple, the second formal speech of his American tour.

"Ask me any questions you want," he invited the interviewer.

"What about Hitchcock's charges that you are a militarist?" he was asked.

That brought laughter from the Tiger who shuffled across the floor in carpet slippers. "I am not a militarist. I suffered the most from not being one from 1871 to 1914. I turned into one shortly before the war broke out and when I prolonged the period of military service in my country to three years."

"There are no black troops stationed along the Rhine," he said, his hand shaking to emphasize the point as he struggled for breath.

Of course the charge is the attempt of Germans in their propaganda, who opposed France and America, and to obscure what is really the great question."

Asked to answer Hitchcock's question about black troops, the Tiger said, "Bon" and waded in.

"In the first place there are no black troops of occupation in the area of occupation of the enemy. In the second place, I have seen black American troops at the front and they stood the fire with bravery, too. Of course, this has nothing to do with the question of whether we are militarists or not. It is an attempt of German propaganda to oppose France and America and obscure what is really the greatest question."

The Germans and all of our foes had been killing enough of our white men, and 100,000 black men fell gallantly fighting on the frontiers of liberty as Woodrow Wilson called them. We are not going to deny them a place in history."

The reason black troops were sent into the occupation zone at first, Clemenceau said, was to provide a few months of home leave for the white troops "that had stood the fire for years until Americans could come and were rather exhausted."

"We couldn't force," he said, "that it would be more objectionable to the Germans than to the French, whose towns they had been garrisoned. When we learned it was, they were withdrawn."

The German objection was more of a surprise because they employed black troops and if they did not bring them to the front, it was because no means of bringing them could be found. They did find means to invade Belgian Congo with blacks."

Then the Tiger came to Senator Borah's statement that he, Clemenceau, was responsible for most of Europe's woes, because of the treaty of Versailles.

Declaring that the criticism was all infected cattle will be slaughtered and the only parts allowed to be used will be fat for soap and hide for leather.

Some of the farmers who signed, and the number of their herds are: Bierley Bros., 31; Rose and Riddle, 21; S. J. Sweet, 26; Henry Holton, 40, and L. T. Simpson, 41.

exactly the opposite in his own country, where he was accused for not demanding enough, he continued.

Let those who say I asked too much to go to Europe—let them bring their German friends and let us settle it there where it can be seen.

"Moreover, if too much was asked at Versailles, which I do not believe, yet 67 per cent of it has been taken without any assent and out of my power."

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—Georges Clemenceau today branded as "a lot of lies" Senator Hitchcock's charges that he is a militarist and that France maintains an army of blacks in Germany. The tiger in his den on the third floor of the palatial Higginson home here came back strongly at his senate critics.

"Ask me any questions you want," he invited the interviewer.

"What about Hitchcock's charges that you are a militarist?" he was asked.

That brought laughter from the Tiger who shuffled across the floor in carpet slippers. "I am not a militarist. I suffered the most from not being one from 1871 to 1914. I turned into one shortly before the war broke out and when I prolonged the period of military service in my country to three years."

"There are no black troops stationed along the Rhine," he said, his hand shaking to emphasize the point as he struggled for breath.

Of course the charge is the attempt of Germans in their propaganda, who opposed France and America, and to obscure what is really the great question."

Legal Battle

Bentz Company, MacAyeal said, because it was probable that it could not be proved that force was used to take the boys from Columbus. The statement of the "boys" who according to welfare department officials, range in age from 18 to 40, were to effect that they had been induced to go to Turtle Creek by promises of high wages and "a good time."

The return of the fourteen state wards to Columbus, marks the conclusion of months of effort, it was said at the welfare department. The situation first was brought to light here last August and since that time negotiations with various branches of the Pennsylvania state government have been carried on. After conferences with various agencies, co-operation of the Pennsylvania state police was assured, it was said, and the raid planned in order that long delays avoided.

Today the "boys" were back at the institutions here and at Orient working on the jobs they had before they departed.

The raid was the culmination of negotiations which have been going on between Ohio and Pennsylvania state authorities for several months, following the discovery of a number of missing wards from Ohio institutions for feeble minded at work in a coal stripping mine at Turtle Creek, Penna., operated by Bentz Brothers, Columbus contractors.

Sergeant F. A. Crebs of the Pennsylvania constabulary came to Columbus yesterday and discussed plans for the raid which had been agreed on. He was accompanied back to Pennsylvania by M. M. Hawk, supervisor of Bentz Makes Dental.

Frank J. Bentz, general manager of the Bentz Brothers, a contracting firm of Columbus, vigorously denied the charges. He authorized this statement:

"We opened some 100,000 tons of coal underlying thirty acres of ground near Turtle Creek, Allegheny county, five months ago. We had nine steam shovels and 45 trucks."

"The men who were taken away by the state police this morning have been in our employ for various periods. They have come to us from time to time voluntarily. One of them, Raymond Lattimore, of Dayton, O., has worked for us for about seven years and most of the others worked for four or five years. None has been with us less than seven or eight months. They range in age from 20 to 25 years."

Men Are Examined.

"A month or so ago, Mr. Donovan and Mr. Hawk, who said they were from Ohio, came here with a constable from Turtle Creek and told me we had six men here who were inmates of the institution for the feeble minded at Orient and that they wanted them.

"I called the men over and they all denied it. I refused to let them go. Sheriff Frank Riddle of Turtle Creek advised me to make myself doubly safe and I had the men examined by three doctors. The doctors gave me an affidavit, properly attested before Sheriff Riddle, that William Stokos, Clarence Smith, Clarence Johnson, Ernest McLeod, Van Emerson and Carl Cox were mentally and physically able to perform the duties to which they were assigned."

"About 2 o'clock this morning a squad of state police came here and took 14 men away. I tried to reason with Sergeant Crebs and asked him if we would be able to institute habeas corpus proceedings to get the men out. He said he was going to take them to Greensburg and we would have two days for these proceedings.

Men Are Spirited Away.

"I drove to Greensburg where I got in touch with Robert Smith, a lawyer, and laid the case before him. We drove to the state police barracks and were told that our men had not been brought there. They refused to tell me where they were."

"All our men here are in good quarters. One of the men who was taken away was a steam shovel operator to whom we paid $225 a month."

"Four of the men were steam shovel operators getting $14 a month. One was a tractor operator at 60 cents an hour and two were driving trucks at the same rate. The others were laborers at fifty cents an hour."

Mr. Bentz said that his brothers, Charles, William, and George were associated with him in the mine. The family home is in Columbus and before entering the coal business the brothers were engaged in excavation contracts in Cleveland, Akron, Detroit and Monroe, Mich.

Though Guttenberg, a German, is generally given credit for inventing the movable type, there were other claimants for the honor. Ulster and Menard, also Germans; Caster, a Dutchman; Waldvogel, a Bohemian, and Gessuld, an Italian, not to mention the Chetham, who printed books as early as 1250.

Red Cross, Mighty Army Of America,

PORTSMOUTH WILL BE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO ENROLL NOV. 26.

Battling Earth's Disease, Suffering

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—In a message to the 200,000 men and women who have just started their task of enrolling "every American everywhere" on the roster of the American Red Cross, Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of that organization, states:

"The Red Cross is a mighty army of red-blooded American men and women, banded together to wage incessant battle against disease, disaster and suffering.

"You are the recruiting officers for this army. As such it is both your duty and your privilege to give to every American the opportunity to consecrate himself anew to service under the banner of the Red Cross.

"We are now engaged in the stupendous task of relieving the misery of more than half a million men, women and children who have been driven out of Asia, Minor and Eastern Thrace by the Greco-Turkish war. When this great international disaster came, the eyes of the American people turned as with one accord to the American Red Cross as the agency through which they would send succor to the suffering.

The Red Cross, as the great volunteer emergency army, never halts; never sleeps; never takes a vacation.

BATTLE OVER SHIP SUBSIDY BILL WAGES IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Bounced up in the House, the administration ship-subsidy bill was commended and condemned during five hours of debate today in which leaders on both sides of the battle took part.

All told, five speeches—three for and two against the bill—were made. Two full days of debate remain before the bill will be laid before the House for amendment, and to satisfy those eager to speak, the meeting time tomorrow was advanced an hour.

Chairman Greene of the Merchant Marine committee, which framed it, and Representative Edmonds, Penna., ranking Republican member, made the principal arguments for the bill. Representative John M. Nelson, Republican, Wisconsin, was selected by Democrats in charge of the opposition to go to bat first to urge its defeat. Representative Bankhead of Alabama, Democratic member of the bill, inviting questions and meeting all attacks, Mr. Edmonds expressed belief that most shipping people wanted it passed, although he declared they had displayed slight interest in its framing and had not attempted to dominate or direct the committee. Mr. Edmonds said he was firmly convinced that the compensation provided was sufficiently large to make up for the loss of operation under the American flag and guarantee an adequate fleet.

What Other Nations Did.
"Great Britain started with a big subsidy," he said, "today it is a small subvention." Japan, after twenty years of high subsidy, is reducing it and still is able to keep her ships on the sea while doing so.

Declaring the government was ap- posed to robbing Peter to pay Paul, Mr. Bankhead told the House the issues involved and the contemplated expenditures were so great that it was the duty of the bill's proponents to show there was no other remedy for present shipping conditions. He characterized it "as a monstrosity." "It is a bold and naked raid on the treasury. The steel corporation is benefited while the United Fruit Company, operating its own fleet of ships to Central America, can go to the board at the end of the year, say we have travelled so many miles and demand a million dollars or two as a Christmas present."

Republicans Are Warned.
In his opening attack, Mr. Nelson warned Republican leaders that if "they would hold the party together they must go out to the masses and not to the ship profiteers." He insisted the bill assured a return of 12½ per cent annually and over that to ship owners and operators.

There was never a large attendance on the floor, but the debate was followed with unusual interest.

Queen Elizabeth was the first sovereign to use a fork, and a clergyman of her time preached a sermon against it, saying Providence gave us our fingers to eat with.

The United States has not always preceded its entrance into war by a formal declaration, having begun hostilities against Great Britain in 1812 by invading Canada and seizing British vessels in American ports.

The bond of William M. Cline, clerk-elect of the Common Pleas Court, with J. W. Robinson, Sherman Lightle, Mrs. Emma S. Cline and James A. Cline as sureties, was approved and ordered filed with the County Treasurer.

On account of there being valid claims against the county in the sum of $1,610.12 to be drawn from the Turnpike fund and in the sum of $380.88 to be drawn from the Bridge fund, and there being no money in the treasury with which to make payments, it was resolved by the board to borrow $2,000 from the First National Bank of Waverly, giving a note for same and bearing interest at 6 per cent and payable on or before March 1, 1923.

The allowances for deputy and clerk hire for the various county officers for the year beginning January 1, 1923, were fixed as follows: Auditor, $2,100; Treasurer, $1,642.53, of which sum $1,065.02 is intended for J. ## LOCAL ORCHESTRA MAKING BIG HIT

Paul Bihlman, Wallace Oakley, Gilbert George, Edward Fitzgerald and Bruce Chamberlain, local young men, who recently formed an orchestra and joined the Roberts Exposition Company for a twenty weeks' tour are now in Virginia. They made a big hit with their playing at Point View Inn, Va., and this week are at Hopewell, Va., where the Roberts Company is staging a Mardi Gras for a National Guard organization.

The Progress and Index-Appeal of Hopewell had this to say several days ago relative to George and the orchestra:

"The big surprise of the evening was when the chap announced, as 'Gib' was introduced, for his act did not appear on the program.

"Gib" surely proved a winner with his line of eccentric talk and lark and wing dancing. Special mention is made of the orchestra, which is in a class all by itself, and so seldom seen with an organization of this sort that a person is really amazed at such wonderful music—music such as one would only expect to hear in the larger dancing palaces, where the admission is several times higher than the price set on a season ticket by the boys of Company E.

"The orchestra's name, which is programmed as the Golden State Serenaders, direct from the Portsmouth O. Winter Garden, and from their antics when they did their act one would think them human dynamos. They are never still during this turn and occupy full stage, for the larger part of 30 minutes, as one of the concessionaires put it, they stop the show, and he is right, for they do this and more."

The orchestra is thinking of going on an eastern vaudeville circuit.

REVENUE OFFICERS AND MOONSHINERS IN BATTLE; ONE IS KILLED; REPORT

The Ashland, Ky., Independent Thursday said:

One man was killed in a battle between revenue men and moonshiners at Chestnut, three miles east of Whitehouse, shortly before noon today. The negro reports were brought to Ashland by the crew of G. and O. passenger train number thirty-seven.

The crew said that moonshiners at Chestnut had heard that the revenue men were intending to pay them a visit. They sent the officers a telegram yesterday ordering them to stay away.

Nineteen revenue men left the train at noon today. They had their guns drawn and were met by a party of men who also had drawn guns. The revenue men ordered the men to raise their hands and as one of the men attempted to lift his shotgun in the air, he was shot by the officers.

It could not be told for certain whether the man was killed or not but he was still lying on the ground when the train pulled away from the station.

SOCIETY

At a meeting held in the Public Library Thursday afternoon, ladies representing various churches in the city formulated plans whereby they can co-operate with the Woman's National Board in helping to raise the remaining one million dollars needed to secure the donation of one million offered by John D. Rockefeller, to the seven Union Christian Colleges of the Orient.

To secure Mr. Rockefeller's gift of one million dollars the women of America will have to raise two million dollars. This money must be secured before January 1, 1923. The state committee has designated December 9th as the day to get this money. Plans were made whereby all women of Portsmouth could help by donating one dollar to this worthy cause.

The Ladies' Relief Society of the First Evangelical church will give a luncheon and bazaar next Tuesday, November 28th, in the church, corner Fifth and Washington streets. The luncheon will be served from eleven until two o'clock, and will include scalloped oysters, ham, creamed potatoes, slaw, cranberries, bread and butter, ice cream, cake and coffee. The bazaar will also open at eleven o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon. Several booths of fancy articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be offered for sale at reasonable prices. The price of the luncheon is fifty cents.

The class of Loyal Helpers of the First Christian Church held an interesting meeting Thursday evening at the home of Miss Letha Biven, with Miss Ada Jackson as the assistant hostess. The evening was spent discussing ways and means of raising funds for the building of a new church, and later several musical numbers were enjoyed. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and the members adjourned to meet on December 5th at the home of Miss Merle Horner, 1007 1-2 Off-nere street.

Those present included the Misses Helen Burchett, Frola Winkler, Mae Newkirk, Myrtle Nelson, Merle Horner, Clara Frye, Anna George, Edith Lawson, Elizabeth Crane, Linwood Crane, Mrs. Thelma Yeager and children, June and Howard, Mrs. I. Hamilton and daughter, Kathleen, Mrs. Edna Aldridge and son Leo, Mrs. Alice Gore.

Visitors for the evening were Mrs. C. W. Jackson, Mrs. R. A. Jackson, Mrs. Thomas Irwin and Miss Faye Murphy.

Ford Seeks To Buy Kentucky Coal Mines

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press)—"No definite arrangements have yet been made for the purchase of any coal mines in Kentucky," it was announced here late today by Wm. B. Mayo, chief engineer of the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Mayo issued a statement when told of a New York dispatch which stated negotiations had been entered into between the Ford company and the Elkhorn Coal Company for the purchase of 100,000 acres of coal lands in Kentucky.

"We have been looking over property," Mr. Mayo said, "but when we came to deal with the board of directors of the corporation that owns the mines, it was found that the board did not have the backing of sixty per cent of stockholders necessary to give an option. Hence, the deal was not made."

Mr. Mayo added that no papers had been or could be signed as no deal had been closed, nor was there any agreement made. Mr. Mayo returned to New York today. Since Mr. Ford found it necessary to close down his plants earlier in the fall, the deal has been under way, Mr. Mayo said, but it is not nearer completion. Mr. Mayo and others of Mr. Ford's staff plan to go to Kentucky next week.

By consummation of the deal, company officials said, the Ford Motor Company hoped to furnish Michigan and the Northwest with a steady supply of coal.

Child Is Hit By Auto; Badly Hurt

A cut over her left eye which required several stitches to close was the chief injury suffered by Esther Webb, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Webb of 2304 Ninth street when she was struck and knocked down last night by an automobile at Eighth and Elm street.

The little girl was playing in the street with a sister when it is claimed she dashed right in front of a machine owned by Charles Shaw of 1117 Fourteenth street and driven by Howard Beaumont of 1013 Washington street.

Beaumont was driving east on Eighth street and had turned to go north on Elm street when the child ran out into the street. He applied the brakes but he could not stop the car before it struck the child. Beaumont was so frightened he jumped out of the machine and ran away for a short time. He later returned and inquired as to the injuries of the little girl. Beaumont was going to a home at 2302 Ninth street when the accident occurred.

Bystanders picked the injured child up and carried her to her home where Dr. W. W. Smith attended her. She suffered several bruises about the head and face in addition to the deep cut over the eye.

In the eighteenth century many writers on finance insisted that public debt increased a nation's wealth.

CHRISTMAS SEALS support the crusade of the double-barred cross in the United States. A new seal is issued each year, but the double-barred cross stands as the permanent emblem under which is carried on the warfare against tuberculosis the year around by voluntary health organizations.

Now I'm not running a contest but would suggest that as long as mother wears a pair of these patent colt sandals with brocade satin quarters and takes daughter with her, she ought to have as many nights out as she wants, providing she gets in early enough to set batter so pa can have his buck wheats the next morning.

The second number of the Wheelerburg M. E. Church Lyceum Course will be presented in the village High School Auditorium next Monday evening at 7:30. Magic, music, melody, mirth characterize the type of entertainment to which the community is invited. Mr. Dietrich and his assistants present a program of rapid-fire magic, accompanied by a "witty line of talk," which is entirely distinctive from the usual stereotyped performance. Mysterious surprises, startling illusions, original ideas and intimitable humor form "A Merry Melange of Modern Marvels."

The musical program embraces selections, classical and popular, on various novelty instruments, among

Daniels Is Held To Grand Jury

An echo of the shooting affray staged at Mt. Joy several weeks ago in which the principals were both severely wounded came in Municipal court Thursday afternoon when "Bud" Daniels, survivor of the gun battle, was brought before Judge McCull to answer to a charge of second degree murder for the killing of his opponent, James H. Compton.

The men were rival merchants at Mt. Joy and the trouble which resulted in the gun battle occurred early on the morning of Sunday, Oct. 15 and grew out of a dispute over Compton penning up one of Daniels' pigs.

A singular incident in connection with the shooting is that the men were wounded by the same weapon as according to witnesses, Daniels was being shot twice grappled with Compton and securing possession of the gun turned it upon his opponent who was wounded twice. Compton succumbed to his wounds a few days later in Hempstead hospital.

It is expected that Daniels will make a plea of that he acted in his proper self defense when he is brought to trial.

Hustling Work On High School Addition

With additional interior finishing material arriving daily the Davis Hunt Construction company hopes to have the east wing of the Portsmouth high school addition completed by the first of the year. Bricklayers have been busy the past week putting up the glazed brick walls in the big gym. Plasterers have completed their work in the class-rooms, study halls, stairways and gym and the addition is now ready for the interior carpenter work. The hardwood floor has arrived for the gym floor but it will be put down last. With the work completed on the east wing so that it can be used at the beginning of the second semester of school in January the contractors will put every available man to work on the west wing of the addition in order to rush the work to completion. The brick work on the walls of the last floor is unfinished. Only a small amount of plastering remains to be done in this wing on the work. Considerable plumbing, heating and ventilating work remains to be completed in both wings of the addition.

The new gym is to be used at the start of the 1923 high school basketball season.

Market News

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Continuation of yesterday's short covering movements in some stocks combined with renewed short selling of rails and steels gave the stock market a decidedly irregular appearance at today's opening. High priced oil and textiles showed substantial improvement, gains of a point being recorded by Consolidated Textile, Dry Goods, Standard Oil of New Jersey and Pan American A and B, Utah, opened 1/4 points higher and then cancelled its gain. Delaware and Hudson reacted two points, and Chesapeake and Ohio 1, while substantial fractional reactions took place in Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific, Reading and Missouri Pacific preferred. Bethlehem B proved vulnerable target for bear selling, dropping 1 1/2 while Lackawanna and Crucible eased off fractionally. Losses of 1 to 2 points were recorded by New York Air-brake A, Continental Can, American Ice, Standard Oil of California, Sears-Roebuck and Public Service of New Jersey. Foreign exchanges opened steady and then turned slightly irregular.

Liquidation of special stocks during the morning was largely counteracted by short covering and new buying by so-called "bargain hunters." Sales disconcerted holders and professional operators on the short side of the market were completed for the time being during the first half hour, the market, therefore with few exceptions, rising quite steadily.

One Feature Worth

Entire Cost of Paper

That seems a strong statement to make, but we confidently believe that the great majority of the subscribers to the Portsmouth Morning Sun will agree that the DR. COPELAND ARTICLES are worth even more than the cost of the Sun per week. Dr. Copeland is one of the leading medical authorities of the country. He writes, every day for the Morning Sun, dealing with some topic of vital interest to the health of everyone. His articles afford a liberal education in health and hygiene. Try the Sun and see if this is not true.

This is but one of the many features in the Morning Sun. For instance some of the best cartoons are to be found every morning in the Sun. Probably the "best line of slang" in the country is used in "Our Boarding House." The Sun is growing. Why not help it along?

The Portsmouth Publishing Co.

none of the list gains running from 1 to 2 points in food, textile, steel and equipment shares. Call money opened at 4 1/4 per cent.

Buying for both accounts on the theory that technical conditions warranted a rally and a light investment absorption of semi-softened dividend paying rails imparted temporary strength to the early part of today's stock market.

However, the comparatively light volume of trading and the failure of stocks to respond more strongly encouraged further liquidation and short selling resulting in a cancellation of many of the earlier gains. Sales approximated 750,000 shares. The closing was weak.

Chicago Grain And Provision

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—Wheat averaged a little higher in price today during the early dealings, the chief bullish influence being the fact that Liverpool on the transactions failed to reflect fully the decline yesterday in America. Buyers were inclined to go slow in view of the reports that a projected loan to Germany had apparently met with defeat. Sellers were cautious as a result of persistent gossip about other plans for financing European purchase of United States surplus food products. The opening, which varied from 3/4 cent to 1 1/2 cent, was followed by slight gains to 1 1/4 cent and July 1.17 1/2 to 1.17 1/2 was followed by slight gains all around.

Corn and oats paralleled the action of wheat. After opening unchanged to 2 1/2 higher, May 70% to 70%, the corn market hardened a trifle for all deliveries.

The close was unsettled, 5% to 1/4 higher with May 1.17 1/2 to 1.17 1/2 and July 1.08 1/2.

Oats started unchanged to 5% higher, May 42% to 42% and later continued firm.

Strength in the hog market tended to raise the value of provisions.

The close was nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 2¢ higher; May 70% to 70 1/4%.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS BEING JAILED BY LOS ANGELES JUDGE

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Thirty-one persons, including one woman, were in jail today for speeding and reckless driving, bringing up to $5 the total to receive such sentences in the Los Angeles police court this week.

Fifty alleged offenders were notified to appear for pleading today.

"If we cannot get all the speeders in the court room, we will adjourn to a vacant lot," announced Police Judge Joseph F. Chambers. "I am sending speeders to jail because that is where they belong."

A report was current today that the campaign to end speeding had resulted in the offenders hiring proxies to serve their sentences.

"I have heard some speculators are hiring idlers to go to jail for them," said a deputy city prosecutor. "The pay is said to be $5.00 a day. I shall call the court's attention to this, and if the report is true, shall ask that drastic action be taken."

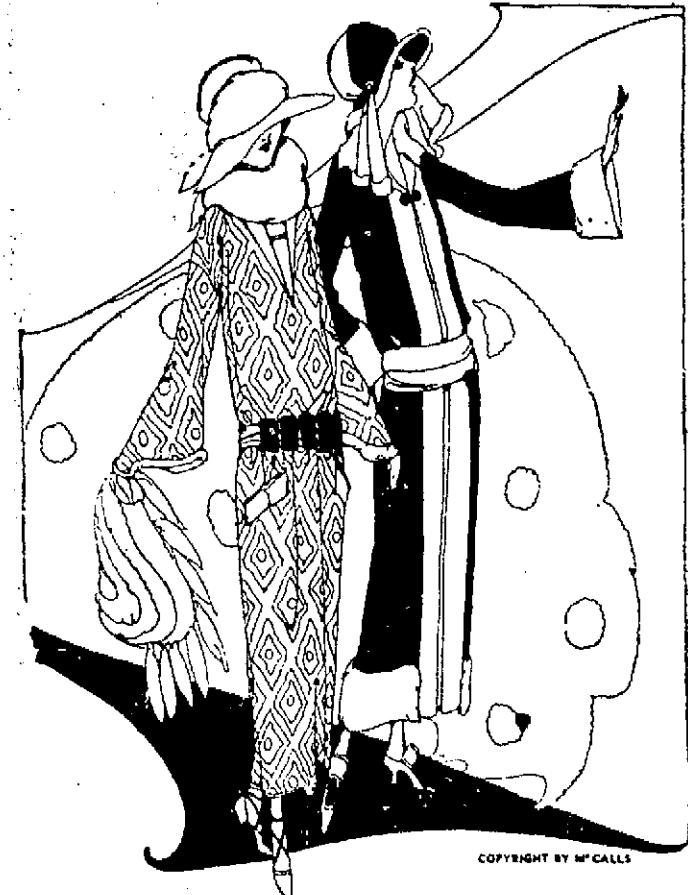

SAN FRANCISCO, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—The California State Automobile Association has appointed 2,000 members in San Francisco to co-operate with the San Francisco police department in reporting traffic law violations by motorists. Each member named also was pledged to set an example in careful driving.

The "Acta Duran" of ancient Rome, a manuscript record of current events which the government posted in public places, offered the earliest approach to a newspaper mentioned in history.

In the days of P. T. Barnum, when it was announced that, in one year the great showman had spent $30,000 on advertising, few people believed it, the sum, for that purpose and at that time seeming so large.

When the Spaniards came to America they were astonished to find the natives of Mexico using the cross as a religious symbol.

Simplicity for Daylight

COPYRIGHT BY McCALL'S

NEW winter frocks for daytime wear are extremely simple in their lines. Straight hemlines are varied with the newer draped dresses, but both are seen many times in the course of a stroll along Fifth Avenue. For evening wear, drapes are practically indispensable. Crepe, twill and tricotine are standard for day wear, of course, but there are many new woolen materials as well. Wool crepe is one of them, that is seen in Jaquard patterns as well as plain.

Velvet is the real aristocrat of the season, however, for both day and evening. It is fashionable in a variety of Jaquard patterns as well as in its native simplicity.

Girls May Form Rifle Club

The Winchester Rifle club has had a very successful season during the past year. Twenty medals and ten bars have been awarded. The club now has one expert rifleman, two sharpshooters, seven marksmen, and nine pro-marksmen. Earl Minch reached the highest goal the club has when he won the expert rifleman's medal. Anton Staker and Earl Minch are the sharpshooters. Staker won his medal with a score of 240 out of a possible 250 and Minch won his with 247. The marksmen are Donald Keeney, Charles Beaumont, Earl Minch, Roy Zeister, Frederick Lauffer, Anton Staker and Arthur Jones. The pro-marksmen are Charles Beaumont, Earl Minch, Donald Keeney.

If the use of this range is secured, seal matches will be arranged and the local unit will be given a chance to see what they can do against out-of-town units. Earl Minch recently received a letter from the Winchester company asking him to form a girls' unit in Portsmouth. This will be done if the use of the Civilian range is secured. Any boy or girl not over 18 interested in the rifle club can obtain information by calling either 1052 or 915-X and asking for Earl Minch.

SANE OR INSANE?

GIRL GUARDIANSHIP IN COURT AGAIN

By NEA Service
BOSTON, MASS.—Is 22-year-old Dorothy Gordon sane or insane? All Massachusetts is waiting for the verdict of the court which is to resolve consideration of the question Nov. 24th.

A perplexing barrage of charges, denials and counter-charges has focused all eyes on the girl prisoner in the McLean Insane Asylum in Waverley.

As a sequel, the Rev. Roland D. Sawyer, only clergymen in the Massachusetts legislature and member of the house committee on public institutions, demanded a state investigation of the McLean Asylum and the conditions surrounding the imprisonment of Miss Gordon.

Two men are fighting for custody of the beautiful young heiress—her guardian, William Jardine, and her uncle, John Gardiner, of Baldwin, L. I. The latter, brother of Dorothy's mother, charges Jardine is unfit to handle her $400,000 fortune and to conduct the Gordon Supply Company, the business founded by her father.

The guardian's fitness is the only question the court is asked to decide, but it will have a strong effect on the question of sanity.

Sensations Aired

Sensational charges were aired at the first court hearing—that Jardine did not believe Dorothy insane when she was first taken to the asylum; that she was placed there to prevent her marriage; that she was detained against her will.

Organizer Arrested For Inciting Violence

NEW HAVEN, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—Accused of inciting striking shopmen to violence in order to hinder the movement of trains in connection with the Harvard-Yale football game tomorrow, Ernest Schleifer, an organizer for the International Association of Machinists, was under arrest here today. The specific charge is that he invited striking railroad shopmen to commit felonies. The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad issued a statement declaring that he had been resorting to violence in order to cripple the motive power and rolling stock of the company and to hinder the movement of trains in connection with the football game.

Schleifer was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by City Attorney Whitaker.

Federal Judge Thomas later issued an order for the arrest of Schleifer on charges of contempt of court by violating the injunction issued in the district court of Connecticut against striking railroad shopmen and the restraining order issued in Chicago.

After the defeat handed Sciotoville by New Boston the S. H. S. lads have been out to practice with new vigor.

Sciotoville eleven will play a practice game and they are more determined than with the Stags of Portsmouth at Sciotoville Saturday afternoon. The Sciotoville eleven is playing this game to get in shape for the game with Greenup on Thanksgiving Day.

After the defeat handed Sciotoville by New Boston the S. H. S. lads have been out to practice with new vigor.

Sciotoville will have all their regulars in the game tomorrow with the exception of Dever who was injured in the New Boston game. Dever expects to be in shape for the Turkey Day game with Greenup.

Mysterious Signs May Reveal
Secret Of Lost Aztec Riches

THE MYSTERIOUS MARKINGS ABOVE THE TOBE HILL MINE, NEAR OZARK, ARK., WHICH MAY HOLD THE SECRET TO A $120,000,000 AZTEC TREASURE. AT RIGHT, DR. TOBE HILL.

By NEA Service.

ZARK, ARK.—Is the long sought secret of the fabulously rich Aztec gold mines near a solution? Will interpretation of mysterious markings on the face of a cliff near here lead to a vault of gold and silver bullion worth $120,000,000?

The question has come to the fore again, as deep research is being made to determine the hieroglyphics, and plans are going forward for the final search which is expected to end treasure quests over more than a century. A man who has searched for a quarter of a century, and expended thousands of dollars, thinks that herein is the key, and that he will soon unlock the romantic mystery of the "Lost Louisiana" mines.

Tradition has it that the ancient Aztecs operated fabulously rich gold and silver mines in Mexico, using the metals for implement making, etc. With the coming of the Spanish conquerors, the mines were seized.

Twelve of the mines are said to have been located in the wild isolated parts of the Ozarks. The Spanish are said to have operated these with Mexican slave labor until 1700. Then came rumors of war with France.

Spanish Hide Treasure

Fearful lest their treasure-trove be seized, the Spanish are said to have stored all the gold and silver bullion in a secret vault and obliterated all trails leading to it and to the mines. For their future guidance, they are said to have left secret markings on the face of a cliff. When the territory passed into French possession in 1800, French adventurers started the search for the treasure. After America acquired it by the Louisiana purchase, the search continued.

Now, after years of fruitless search by predecessors, one prospector remains confident in his belief that he has finally struck the spot where the Aztec treasure lies hidden. He is Dr. Tobe Hill, a practicing physician of Mulberry, Ark.

Twenty-five years ago, a roving Spaniard divulged the secret of the lost mines to Dr. Hill and his father. He took them over the territory which the physician's father owned, and which he says holds the secret of this vast wealth.

Searches 25 Years

After these 25 years of unremitting search and the expenditure of between $15,000 and $25,000, Dr. Hill has succeeded only in reaching what he believes is the vault wherein the Spaniards buried the gold and silver they had unearthed from the Aztec mines. But he is halted at the opening.

There, on a ledge above the entrance to the natural vault, is what Hill believes is the open-seam to the treasure. It consists of hieroglyphics or strange signs.

An accident led Dr. Hill to the discovery of the vault and its queer tablet. A ledge of rock near his father's home had long been the "rubbing post" for hogs. One day a neighbor noticed that in rubbing against the rocks the hogs had uncovered the graven figure of a bow and arrow pointing downward.

He told Dr. Hill and digging was immediately begun. Down and down went the workmen until they had uncovered the entire cliff, about 20 feet high and 100 feet long, its smooth face covered with the strange signs. Tunnels were bored and shafts sunk until water forced their abandonment.

To the right of this cliff the natural vault was found which, it is the firm belief of Dr. Hill, contains the buried treasure. People about here now call it the "Tobe Hill mine."

It is flooded with the waters of Mulberry Creek and no way can be found into it—unless its secret can be unfolded from the signs above its entrance.

RAILROAD BOARD TO UPHOLD THE PRINCIPLE OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

CHICAGO, November 24.—(By the Associated Press)—That the principle of collective bargaining will be upheld and both employees and railroad held strictly accountable for their contracts was indicated by the United States Railroad Labor Board. A decision of a rehearing on a decision and another decision made public today.

The employees held that T. A. Rogers, and T. R. Hart, their representatives in the conference with railroad officials had not the authority to accept such an agreement.

The labor board held that, as duly authorized representatives, their actions must be taken as official.

In the chains of Roefsma for one hour overtime, the telegraphers' organization, that 30 a. m. to 7 p. m. were in violation of their agreement which stated employees should start work between six and nine a. m. and six and nine p. m. While no actual overtime was due, the labor board held with the employees that the organization agreement must take precedence over an individual agreement, even though by failure to ask for a change in working hours, Roefsma seemingly had agreed to such conditions.

"I Have Jenny Lind's Voice Because I Am Her Reincarnation!"

The Astounding Claim of a Girl Reporter Turned Singer Gives New Importance to the Old Theory

living in the human body, the soul or ego, progresses from life to life toward perfection, would be conclusive proof of the soul of Jenny Lind reincarnated in the body of Lucille Chalfonte.

For if the ego retained its consciousness of an incarnation past, a rare thing and limited only to those far on the way toward spectacular achievement, its influence might be so definite as to dictate the physical appearance of its clay residence.

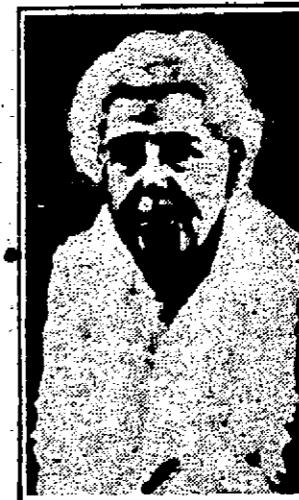

The manner in which life took her straight to the concert stage is regarded by her as another proof of her belief. Miss Chalfonte began her career as a newspaper reporter. As a girl in school in Los Angeles she displayed talent for music, but believed her forte to be instrumental.

There came a day when her newspaper sent Buddha, Whose Millions of Followers Believe That His Soul Once Dwelt in the Body of an Elephant.

Poetess of Passion, Who Believed in Reincarnation.

Annie Besant, Who Says "Each Life Is the Child of All Lives Before It."

Mary MacLane, Who Says "Her Soul Told Her of Past Incarnations."

her to Chicago to write a series of interviews with the members of the Chicago Grand Opera Company. And it was during an interview with a lyric soprano that she happened to sing a few notes in the presence of the director. He at once took her to the studio of Mme. Aurelio, Arimendi, with whom she at once began to study. It was only a few weeks later that Jules Daiber, then assistant to the general director of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, engaged her for his concert bureau. She gave up newspaper work and devoted herself exclusively to the concert stage after the critics had compared her singing with that of Jenny Lind.

Miss Chalfonte is not the first artist to feel that her ability in artistic expression is the result of wisdom gleaned in previous lives; an outgrowth of that law of the ancient doctrine explained by Annie Besant, the great theosophical leader:

"No life is isolated; each is the child of all lives before it; the parent of all lives that follow it; one of the aggregate of lives that make up the continuing existence of the ego."

Our thoughts, deeds, desires of today set up a trail of consequences which must balance them off, if not in this life, then in one to come. It is our desires of this life that determine our place of rebirth in the next and that, by their effect upon those about us, draw those same egos near in after lives that we may right the wrongs done them and thus fulfill the law of Karma or Justice.

This is the belief held by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the late "Poetess of Passion," writer and teacher, who claimed a recollection of a life in Egypt, in the days when that land was in its glory. In making her claim to positive identification of her entity in past existence, Mrs. Wilcox only followed the lead of the great Buddha, whose followers trace his progress up through mineral to vegetable life; through the lower animals to the elephant, the sacred beast of the East, in the body of which the august soul reposed many a long year, and still up through various human figures to the supreme perfection of the founder of Buddhism.

A striking account of reincarnations and the valuation set by the soul upon each, is given by Mary MacLane in her bizarre set of ramblings, "I, Mary MacLane." She wrote in part:

"At rariish intervals comes my Soul to visit me. My Soul is like a young, most beautiful girl, marked and worn by long cycles of time, but not anyway aged. We talked last of some bygone persons I have been; some shapes she wore . . .

"Said the Soul: 'Early in the sixteenth century you were a ragged Russian peasant girl living in ignorance and filth in a hut by the swamp-edge. At eighteen you were a coarsened, hardy wench tending a drove of pigs and goats on the sunny steppe. I was there with you as presently as now—as sentient, as perceptive. But it is a question whether you or the little beasts you drove were the more beastly stupid.'

"I have no ghost-memory of that time, but as the Soul told of it a nascent feeling came on me, as if some part of my mind felt its way back to it.

"In London near the end of the seventeenth century before and during the period of the Gordon Riots you lived in a way of peace. From when you were fourteen until you were twenty-nine you lived alone with your little lame half-sister whom you cared for very devotedly, very tenderly.'

"My little half-sister—until the Soul spoke of her there was no vision, no image like her. Then something of me remembered.

"Said the Soul: 'You were once a little thief in the streets of a later London. You were known to the police as the cleverest child-thief in London.'

"At an earlier time—Paris, some century before the Terror—saw you a slim file-du-pave, a low, cheap type, but with more brain, more of what is termed character than you have ever possessed. At seventeen, a woman of the streets; at thirty a woman a wonderfully grand courtesan.'

"Said I: 'You admired her?'

"Said the Soul: 'I was serene and vividly alive within you. You were in all ways simply and completely an honest woman and for the only time.'

"You were many centuries ago a Greek girl of the aristocratic class, bred in an intellectual life. But you had no heart, no human flame. You were a Greek woman in a still earlier time, of a type which murders all simplicity. You were made of twisted fives. I grew in that day; grew distorted.'

"You were a married woman in four separate ages; you were once a young lad of fierce temperament; at twenty a madman. No male body and brain could withstand and outface merely the emotional besiegings of you.'

And with all these claims to memory that goes back through the ages and defies death and terrific change, it is interesting to consider the statement of Dr. Hereward Carrington, secretary of the Society for Psychical Research, upon the matter of recalling the events of past lives:

"I do not believe it possible," he declared. "The argument may be advanced that if one recalls, under certain conditions, circumstances of this life sunk so deeply into the subconscious mind as to be completely obliterated from the consciousness, remembering events of other existences would be just as possible. The lack of logic lies in forgetting that consciousness and subconsciousness both are found in a single brain, while the ego, if it actually incarnates itself, would have a different brain to think with in each life."

Three Poses of Lucille Chalfonte,
Two of Them in Typical Jenny Lind
Costumes. That at the Right Having Been Pronounced an Almost Identical
Likeness of the Swedish
Nightingale.

THE soul of Jenny Lind slipping out of the shadows of Beyond, to live again in a slender, fair-haired girl! The exquisite voice of the Swedish nightingale rising again in song for the happiness of those living nearly four-score years after her lips were dust!

Can it be possible?

"Perhaps," say certain mystics and metaphysicians.

"Not possible—but true, nevertheless," answers Broadway.

"Yes!" This from the slender, fair-haired girl herself; one who, as long as she can remember, has felt more than mere kinship with Jenny Lind. There has been, according to her best effort to explain, the sense of merging personality; the strange, deep knowledge of experiences gone before; of loves, dislikes, ambitions, emotions all familiar to a time so remote as to be like a dimly remembered dream. The girl is Lucille Chalfonte, the little coloratura soprano who has been the sensation of the music world here since her appearance on the concert platform.

Her own theory is that the spirit of Jenny Lind lives in her body, helping her to surmount obstacles that have threatened her progress from time to time; assisting her with mastery of a technique she otherwise might have spent years in acquiring; imbuing her with its own sweetness and charm. And as if to furnish visible proof of her contention, Miss Chalfonte bears striking physical resemblance to the sweet singer of long ago. She has the same clear-cut profile, the same gentle face, the curling, pale gold hair, the lissome figure.

This circumstance alone, according to the tenets of the oldest of known philosophies, that which teaches the essential spark of immortality
